

Dear Mr President, your primary responsibility is the security and welfare of your citizens. You swore to do that. Are you not concerned about the level of impunity and frequency of killings in Nigeria. You have continued to remain mute and unlook. Forces are challenging the state for the monopoly of violence. A clear indication of a failed state. Dear Citizens, we must engage our duty bearers to do better for us. Lets start with the National Assembly. We all have a Senator and a House of Representatives member. They were elected to speak up for us. Sọrọ Sókè!

A WEEK OF HORROR!

A DAY OF HORROR - MONDAY, APRIL 26TH

Bandits kill 2 more students of Kaduna's Greenfield University.

Boko Haram hoists flag in Kaure village, Shiroro Local Government, Niger State.

Gunshots, violence as Yoruba, Hausa youths clash in Lagos.

President Buhari's regime threatens Channels TV with ₦5 million fine and suspension for allowing the Spokesperson of the Indigenous People of Biafra (IPOB) to make statements that could be considered inciting and secessionist.

No fewer than 9 people were killed when hoodlums invaded Ukpomachi community, Awkuzu in Oyi Local Government Area of Anambra State.

5 police officers killed by gunmen who attacked the Okigwe South Area command in Imo State. One is yet to be accounted for.

"Tomorrow's victims would be today's survivors. Those who have died would not die again. The next set to be killed would be from those of us alive. So it's in all our interest to take a stand against this menace."
- Aisha Yesufu (Active Citizen)