

#BringBackOurGirls A Broken Promise?

In the spirit of celebrating small wins, Saratu Dauda, one of the 276 kidnapped Chibok girls in 2014, was recently found by the military on May 6, 2023 at Ukuba terrorists' hideouts in the Sambisa forest, Borno State.

Just last month, Hauwa Mutah and Esther Markus (both 26 years of age) were also rescued by the Nigerian military. 🙌🙌🙌

Still on the matter

Muhammadu Buhari
@MBuhari

How can 219 girls be missing in our country, and our leader appears incapable of action?

#ThingsMustChange

9:09 06 Jan 15

276
ABDUCTED

57
ESCAPED

17
RESCUED
(BY MILITARY)

114
RELEASED

88
STILL MISSING

LEAH SHARIBU

May 14, 2023 marked Leah Sharibu's 20th birthday, which also made it her fifth year in captivity. Unfortunately, not very much is being said or heard about ongoing efforts to secure her release.

Many unknown
abductees

OUR DEMANDS AT 9 YEARS

- 1 Bring back our girls before May 29, 2023.
- 2 Accountability from the Borno State Government.
- 3 Provide closure for parents on the fate of their daughters.
- 4 Psycho-social support for Chibok and other conflict-affected families.
- 5 Equip and motivate the police and armed forces and see to their welfare.
- 6 Reinvest in the Victims Support Fund (VSF)
- 7 Public statement on the Missing Persons Register and immediate reopening of a properly resourced and staffed Missing Persons Desk.
- 8 Report on the coordinated provision of security for schools.
- 9 Status report on the Safe Schools Initiative and adequate financing to ensure its effectiveness.

We call on President Muhammadu Buhari to fulfil his promise and ensure that all remaining Chibok Girls are released before his tenure ends on May 29.

#BringBackOurGirls #KeepYourWordPMB #9YearsTooLong